

The Sunninghill Trust - Supporting local residents in times of need.

Covid-19 Coronavirus

Coronavirus (Covid-19) is causing considerable concern to many people – be that uncertainty about the illness or the financial challenges that this will bring.

The Sunninghill Trust offers help in times of hardship, we want to remind local residents in Sunninghill, Cheapside and Ascot that we can provide financial support in difficult times.

If your family currently qualify for school meals, if you are elderly and isolated, if you are experiencing financial hardship or if you know someone that needs support then please get in touch.

Leave a message on the answerphone or email with your name, address and contact details and give a brief overview of your situation.

Phone: 01344 206320 (answerphone)

We will call you back on the number you provide or,

Email: help@thesunninghilltrust.org

With your name, address and phone number.

We also support a number of organisations who may also be able to help if we can't – for example, Citizens Advice Bracknell, Ascot Volunteer Bureau and the Ascot Day Centre.

This service is confidential and available to residents of Sunninghill, Cheapside, South Ascot and Ascot Parish.

Website: www.thesunninghilltrust.org